

HARRIET SALARNO is the mother of California's crime victims' movement, becoming an advocate soon after the murder of her oldest daughter Catina in 1979. Her decades of work includes helping pass the country's first anti-stalking legislation and our "Three Strikes" law here in California, co-chairing our state's "Victims Bill of Rights" (Marsy's Law) and helping nearly 3,000 victims each year. Her accomplishments earned her the Paul H. Chapman Gold Medal Award from the Foundation for Improvement of Justice.
